Benefits of Competition

- ▶ Drives cost savings
- ▶ Improves quality of product/service
- ▶ Enhances solutions and the industrial base
- ▶ Promotes fairness and openness leading to public trust
- ▶ Prevents waste, fraud, and abuse, because contractors know they must perform at a high level or else be replaced
- ▶ Healthy competition is the lifeblood of commerce – it increases the likelihood of efficiencies and innovations

"Antitrust laws in general, and the Sherman Act in particular, are the Magna Carta of free enterprise. They are as important to the preservation of economic freedom and our free enterprise system as the Bill of Rights is to the protection of our fundamental personal freedoms. And the freedom guaranteed each and every business, no matter how small, is the freedom to compete—to assert with vigor, imagination, devotion, and ingenuity whatever economic muscle it can muster."

- Justice Thurgood Marshall - United States v. Topco Assocs., Inc., 405 U.S. 596, 619 (1972)

Key Drivers of Competition

- ▶ It's beneficial – for the reasons stated!
- ▶ It's the law!
 - Competition isn't an alternative, it is required!
 - Other than full and open competition is the exception, not the rule!
 - Fair opportunity is required for orders against multiple award contracts, unless an exception is approved
- ▶ High visibility continues
 - President - 4 March 2009 Memo on Government Contracting
 - Congress - Ongoing Legislation through National Defense Authorization Acts (NDAAs)
 - OMB, OSD and the Components
 - GAO, DoDIG, and other Audit Agencies

Ensure that value and competition are foremost considerations in every program - AT&L Guiding Principle

Objectives Of Competition Training

- ▶ Enhance awareness and understanding of the importance of competition in the acquisition process
- ▶ Provide fundamental understanding of competition and its benefits
- ▶ Promote awareness of competition initiatives

"It is the policy of the Federal Government that executive agencies shall not engage in noncompetitive contracts except in those circumstances where their use can be fully justified and where appropriate safeguards have been put in place to protect the taxpayer."

"I asked agencies to reinvigorate the role of the competition advocate and maximize the meaningful use of competition. Competition is the cornerstone of our acquisition system and is a critical tool for achieving the best return on investment possible for our taxpayers. I commend you for the steps you are taking to strengthen competition practices in Federal acquisition. We need to do more to promote the appropriate use of tools and effective practices to improve and increase the use of competition."

Keys To Effective Competition

► Market Research

- Strategic (Surveillance focus) – gain general knowledge and sense of the market; gather and analyze data on a continual basis
- Tactical (Investigative focus) – tailored & detailed investigation of the market aimed at specific procurement action

► Developing/Describing Agency Requirements

- Understanding and properly assessing the maturity level of a requirement is the key to getting started with Market Research

Keys to Effective Competition
1. Market Research
2. Developing/Describing Agency Requirements

"The natural price, or the price of free competition ... is the lowest which can be taken... (It) is the lowest which the sellers can commonly afford to take, and at the same time continue their business."

"In every profession, the exertion of the greater part of those who exercise it, is always in proportion to the necessity they are under of making that exertion...and, where competition is free, the rivalry of competitors, who are all endeavouring to jostle one another out of employment, obliges every man to endeavour to execute his work with a certain degree of exactness."

Keys to Effective Competition
1. Market Research
2. Developing/Describing Agency Requirements

- ▶ Accurately gather information from relevant sources in and outside the organization to support
 - Identifying commercial product/service that meet minimum requirements, and mission needs
 - Expand insight into commercial market place
- ▶ Use results to determine:
 - If capable sources exist
 - Availability of commercial and/or non-developmental items
- ▶ Arrive at most suitable approach to acquiring supplies and services
 - Identify legitimate needs
- ▶ Market research is not just:
 - Posting a draft on FedBizOps
 - A sources sought synopsis
 - Someone else's market research report

Goal: Increase Competition to Promote Best Value

Keys to Effective Competition: Market Research - Strategic Focus

Keys to Effective Competition

1. Market Research
2. Developing/Describing Agency Requirements

- ❖ “Long Term View” aimed at gaining a sense of the market (surveillance)
- ❖ Team participation is key
 - Requiring Activity
 - Program Manager
 - Contracting Officer
 - User/Customer
 - Others, as appropriate
- ❖ Supports trade-off decisions between alternatives

The Foundation of Competition

- ▶ The Competition in Contracting Act (CICA) of 1984, as implemented in the Federal Acquisition Regulation (FAR) Part 6 and Department of Defense FAR Supplement (DFARS) Part 206, sets a standard of competition for Federal contracts
 - Sends the clear message to industry and Federal procurement personnel that, in buying goods and services, the Government will obtain them through competition
- ▶ Types of contract competition
 - Competition for actions using Simplified Acquisition Procedures
 - Full and open competition
 - Full and open competition after exclusion of sources
 - Other than full and open competition

"When awarding Government contracts, the Federal Government must strive for an open and competitive process. However, executive agencies must have the flexibility to tailor contracts to carry out their missions and achieve the policy goals of the Government. In certain exigent circumstances, agencies may need to consider whether a competitive process will not accomplish the agency's mission. In such cases, the agency must ensure that the risks associated with noncompetitive contracts are minimized."

President Barack Obama

 - For actions under the Commercial Item Test Program (FAR 13.5)
 - contracting officers must prepare a sole source justification using the format at 6.303-2 and obtain approval in accordance with the test program at FAR 13.501

Competition Successes - DoD

- ▶ DoD conducted over 2000 competitions using A-76 process
 - As a result of competition, annual operating costs were reduced by 31 percent (cumulative savings of $1.5 billion a year)
 - Savings achieved highlight the potential benefits of opening up even more of our support activities to competition

Competition Yields Significant Savings

	Competitions Completed	Average Annual Savings($M)	Percent Savings
Army	510	$470	27%
Air Force	733	$560	36%
Marine Corps	39	$23	34%
Navy	806	$411	30%
Defense Agencies	50	$13	28%

Summary

- ▶ Competition is the rule not the exception!
- ▶ Market research is the key
- ▶ Justification is required when competition is not practicable
- ▶ Design an acquisition strategy that supports competition
- ▶ Full and Open Competition provides all responsible sources an opportunity to compete. It is the standard for contracts, unless other contracting procedures are expressly authorized by statute
- ▶ Fair Opportunity (i.e., competition) is the standard for orders issued under the Federal Supply Schedule program or under a multiple award indefinite-delivery indefinite-quantity contract
- ▶ Understand the procedures/authorities at FAR 6.3 (Other Than Full and Open competition) and FAR/DFARS 8.4 and 16.5 (MACs)
- ▶ Correct coding and reporting of the contract action in FPDS is critical!
